08Nights/09Days

Day 1: Arrival in Jaipur

Welcome to Jaipur, the vibrant capital of Rajasthan! When you arrive in the early hours of the morning, you will be welcomed and driven to your accommodation. Start your trip by seeing Hawa Mahal, often known as the Palace of Winds. Its stunning five-story front is designed to resemble a honeycomb. Head to Jantar Mantar, an observatory for astronomy that displays scientific and architectural innovation from the past. See examples of Mughal and Rajput architecture side by side by visiting the Govind Dev Ji Temple and City Palace. In the evening, visit Albert Hall, Birla Mandir, Moti Doongari, and Jaipur's beautiful markets, which are great for buying traditional Rajasthani goods. Spend the night in a Jaipur hotel.

Day 2: Explore Jaipur

After a Delicious breakfast, visit Amer Fort, a wealthy stronghold with opulent gardens, halls, and palaces that can only be reached by enchanting elephant rides that offer a truly royal experience. See Panna Meena Kund, Jaigarh Fort, and Nahargarh Fort to gain an understanding of Jaipur's former imperial status. To end your day, take a walk around the serene Jal Mahal, a water palace that appears to float in Man Sagar Lake. You might choose to shop at Jaipur's famous bazaars in the evening, which are well-known for their vibrant textiles and exquisite diamond jewellery. Spend the night in Jaipur.

Day 3: Jaipur to Bikaner Transfer and Local City Tour (Jaipur to Bikaner: 390 km, 6 hours)

After breakfast, depart Jaipur and head to Bikaner for a six-hour drive. After arriving, spend the early afternoon seeing the distinctive National Research Centre on Camel, which is devoted to researching the ship of the desert. This centre provides a thorough examination of the different breeds and how they have adapted to the arid climate. Explore the opulent Rampuriya Havelis later on; they are renowned for their beautiful paintings and elaborate construction. The lavish merchant lifestyle of the 15th century is reflected in these Havelis. Overnight in Bikaner.

Day 4: Explore Bikaner and Transfer to Jaisalmer (Bikaner to Jaisalmer: 340 km, 5 hours)
